How to Find a Bible Passage

Even though the pages of the Bible are numbered, when we want to find stories or passages in the Bible we don't use page numbers. Instead, we use a special kind of numbering. The numbering tells us in which part of each book of the Bible we can find a particular story. Here is an example of that numbering and what each part stands for:

This is the name of the book.

This is the chapter number.

Matthew 22:34-40

These are the verse numbers.

So Matthew 22:34-40 stands for The Gospel According to Matthew, chapter 22, verses 34 through 40. A book of the Bible can have one or more chapters. Each chapter has two or more verses. A verse is usually one or two sentences of the story or passage.

Here is how you would find those verses in the Bible:

First, find the Bible book.

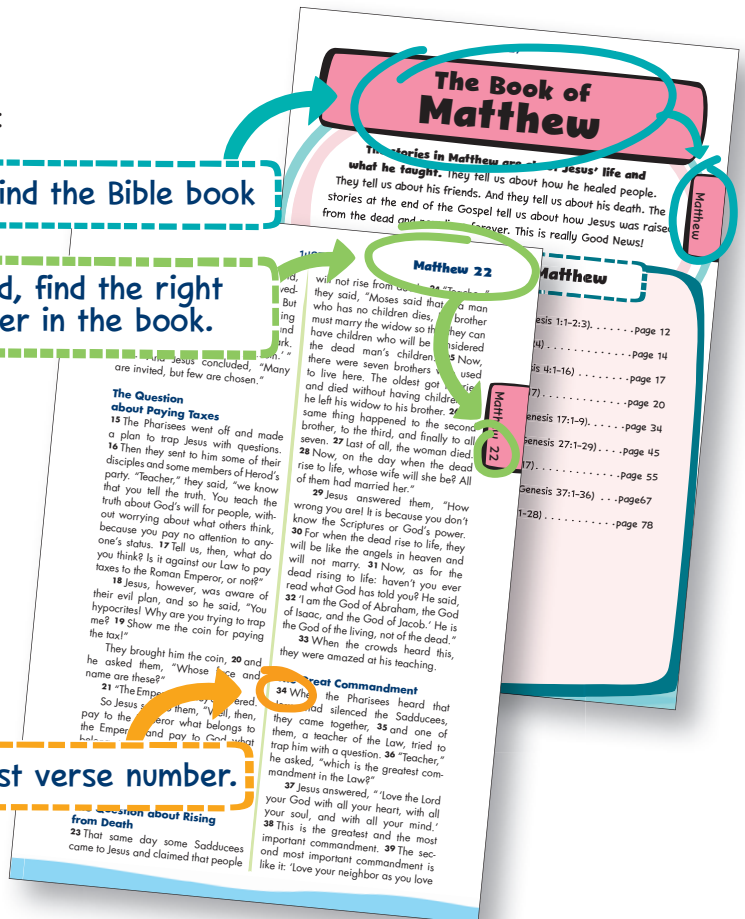

First, find the Bible book

Second, find the right chapter in the book.

Second, find the right chapter in the book.

Third, find the first verse number and start reading. When there are two verse numbers, read all the verses between the two numbers, including the final verse.

Third, find the first verse number.

The Old Testament

Introduction to the Old Testament

The Bible has two main sections, the Old Testament and the New Testament. Testament is another word for the sacred promise God made with people. The Bible also calls the sacred promise a covenant. God promises that if we trust in him and follow his laws, we will live with him forever. He first made this promise with his Chosen People in the Old Testament. At different times the Chosen People are called Hebrews, Israelites [IZ-ry-el-yts], or Jews. The Old Testament teaches us about their relationship with God. Even though they broke their covenant with God many times, God never broke his covenant with them.

The Old Testament is divided into four smaller sections that are explained here.

The Pentateuch

The first section of the Old Testament is called the Pentateuch. This section has only five books. In fact, the word "Pentateuch" means "five books." Even though this section does not have many books, it is very important. Its books teach us that God created the world and everything in it. They teach us how sin entered the world and hurt our relationship with God. They teach us how God started his relationship with his Chosen People. They teach us how God promised to love them and gave his special Law to them. If you know the stories in these five books of the Old Testament, the rest of the Bible is easier to understand.

The Historical Books

The second section of the Old Testament has sixteen books. These books teach us about the history of God's Chosen People. There are stories about ordinary people, mighty warriors, and great kings and queens. We learn about their relationship with God. When the Chosen People trusted God and followed his Law, their lives were good. When they did not trust God and follow his Law, they suffered. Because they kept disobeying God, their kingdom was destroyed. Still, God always was faithful to his promise. When the Chosen People turned to God again, he helped them to start over.

The Wisdom Books

The third section of the Old Testament contains seven books. They teach us how to be wise, or have wisdom. Having wisdom means living as God wants us to live. The wisdom books include many different types of writing. There are songs, prayers, love poems, and clever sayings. But what the wisdom books all have in common is that they teach us how to worship God and please him by making good choices.

The Books of the Prophets

A prophet is a person who speaks for God. There were many prophets in the Old Testament. The teachings of some prophets were written down in books. These books are the fourth section of the Old Testament. There are eighteen books of the prophets. The prophets warned the Chosen People to keep their covenant with God and to follow his laws. They also promised that God would always care for his Chosen People. Some prophets even promised that God would send them a Savior. This Savior would bring the fullness of God's love and peace to the entire world. The Savior the prophets promised is Jesus Christ. The New Testament is all about him!

The Book of Genesis

Have you seen photos of your parents when they were children? Have you heard funny stories about yourself as a baby? You probably have. People like to tell stories about how things began.

The first book in the Bible is called Genesis. It has stories about how God made the world and everything in it. It teaches that God made human beings so he could share his love with us. Even after the first people God made disobeyed him, he still loved them. God reached out to people like Noah and Abraham. He wanted to share his love with them and with their families. The stories in Genesis remind us that God loves us and our families too.

The Story of Creation

1 In the beginning, when God created the universe, 2 the earth was formless and desolate. The raging ocean that covered everything was engulfed in total darkness, and the Spirit of God was moving over the water. 3 Then God commanded, “Let there be light”—and light appeared. 4 God was pleased with what he saw. Then he separated the light from the darkness, 5 and he named the light “Day” and the darkness “Night.” Evening passed and morning came—that was the first day.

6-7 Then God commanded, “Let there be a dome to divide the water and to keep it in two separate places”—and it was done. So God made a dome, and it separated the water under it from the water above it. 8 He named the dome “Sky.” Evening passed and morning came—that was the second day.

9 Then God commanded, “Let the water below the sky come together in one place, so that the land will appear”—and it was done. 10 He named the land “Earth,” and the water which had come together he named “Sea.” And God was pleased with what he saw. 11 Then he commanded, “Let the earth produce all kinds of plants, those that bear grain and those that bear fruit”—and it was done. 12 So the earth produced all kinds of plants, and God was pleased with what he saw. 13 Evening passed and morning came—that was the third day.

14 Then God commanded, “Let lights appear in the sky to separate day from night and to show the time when days, years, and religious festivals begin; 15 they will shine in the sky to give light to the earth”—and it was done. 16 So God made the two larger lights, the sun to rule over the day and the moon to rule over the night; he also made the stars. 17 He placed the lights in the sky to shine on the earth, 18 to rule over the day and the night, and to separate light from darkness. And God was pleased with what he saw. 19 Evening passed and morning came—that was the fourth day.

20 Then God commanded, “Let the water be filled with many kinds of living beings, and let the air be filled with birds.” 21 So God created the great sea monsters, all kinds of creatures that live in the water, and all kinds of birds. And God was pleased with what he saw. 22 He blessed them all and told the creatures that live in the water to reproduce and to fill the sea, and he told the birds to increase in number. 23 Evening passed and morning came—that was the fifth day.

24 Then God commanded, “Let the earth produce all kinds of animal life: domestic and wild, large and small”—and it was done. 25 So God made them all, and he was pleased with what he saw.

26 Then God said, “And now we will make human beings; they will be like us and resemble us. They will have power over the fish, the birds, and all animals, domestic and wild, large and small.” 27 So God created human beings, making them to be like himself. He created them male and female, 28 blessed them, and said, “Have many children, so that your descendants will live all over the earth and bring it under their control. I am putting you in charge of the fish, the birds, and all the wild animals. 29 I have provided all kinds of grain and all kinds of fruit for you to eat; 30 but

God Made Us to Love and to Be Loved

Genesis 1:26–31 (For the full story, read Genesis 1:1–2:3.)

26 Then God said, “And now we will make human beings; they will be like us. . . .” 27 So God created human beings. . . . He created them male and female, 28 blessed them, and said, “Have many children, so that your descendants will live all over the earth and bring it under their control. I am putting you in charge of the fish, the birds, and all the wild animals. 29 I have provided all kinds of grain and all kinds of fruit for you to eat; 30 . . .” —and it was done. 31 God looked at everything he had made, and he was very pleased. Evening passed and morning came—that was the sixth day.

Understand It!

When you look at the stars, do you wonder who made them? Do you also wonder who made you? This Bible story tells you the answers. Once there was only God: the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. These three Persons of the Trinity were happy loving one another. But God wished to share his life and love. So God created the universe. Then he made a man and a woman. God loved them very much and told them to have children. You came from these first parents. God made you and loves you too!

God gives us powers like he has. We can think, so we can know about God and our world. We are free to make choices about what to eat and what to wear and how to act. Best of all, we have the power to love God back and love other people.
